Session: 2016-2017 To 2020-2021

The college conducts student discussion sessions on curriculum and social issues. Students are assigned to discuss the study issues in the curriculum by forming small groups of students in the classroom, as well as discuss important social issues in some areas. On some occasions students choose topics themselves and discuss. The main purpose of this discussion session is to understand each other through discussion. Awareness of social issues, students express their feelings, thinking power increases, mutual harmony grows. Decision making ability develops. Team spirit is created. Mutual cooperation helps to solve the problem through deliberation. It also helps in developing overall personality of the student.
