Distinctiveness of the College

Bhagwantrao Shivaji Patil Mahavidyalaya, Paratwada was established by Bhartiya Vidya Mandir Amravati in 1969 to disseminate value-based education and to develop the vocational skills of tribal and rural masses for their holistic development. The college was established in response to the dire needs in the young generation of tribes, poor and downtrodden inhabitants of Chikhaldara, Dharni Tehsils of Melghat and landless workers and farmers of Achalpur and adjacent Tehsil areas. Tribal population of Melghat had no hope for higher education instead of academic and cultural brilliance.

The college fulfills its mission of creating educational environment for all round development of such people under the scholarly guidance of pioneers, president and management, principal, teaching, non-teaching staff and with proper representation of students in various activities.

The distinctiveness of the college lies in the socio-economic development of tribal and rural learners and women empowerment through quality education, research and extension.

The college was established in 1969 and celebrated Golden Jubilee in 2019. In the purview of institute splendid aphorism to educate students of poor farmers, tribal of Melghat and to eradicate the vices among them. Our college was the sole option made available by Bhartiya Vidya Mandir Amravati.

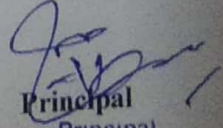

Due to the orthodox views of the population most of the girls were not allowed to enroll for higher education therefore we provided educational opportunities. The established Best Practice like NSS for Tribal Awareness, Tribal Students Cell brings awareness among these students.

Various eminent women personalities are regularly invited for the guidance on different aspects. Special guest lectures are organized by departments to motivate students.

The college has higher girl enrolment ratio and we are successfully marching towards the betterment of tribal and backward society. The college has been playing a main role in the development such students.

It is creditable for us that our students grabbed the place in the merit list of the university. Ample number of our students have achieved excellence in games and sports activities.

We feel proud to mention that we are making commendable contribution in shaping careers of thousands of students and playing a role in the all-round development of the region.
