

B. S. Patil Mahavidyalaya, Paratwada

Rural Handicrafts

Annual Report

Session : 2018-19

The subject was started by considering the growing problem of high cost of living which has made life difficult. Through this education, students are trained in various types of art objects by inviting them to demonstrate various art objects from waste materials. Information is given about sustainable commodities.

On the 11/01/2019, Head of the Department, Prof. Nimbhorkar Madam addressed the tribal community on the topic of "Nutritional Values of Traditional Grains" and Nutritious Foods made from them in the Integrated Initiative for Nutrition and Health Security of Korcu Tribal Community.

All the Sakhi's from Lokmat Sakhi Manch were present at the demonstration.

On the 15/02/2019, The event was organized under the chairmanship of Nimbhorkar Madam. The chief guest of the program was Prabhudas Chavan, President of "Bas Kala Sagar" Industrial. He showed the students various art objects from wooden. It featured a variety of items from wooden to hairpins, mobile stands, flowers etc and was made by the students. He also guided them on the different types of bamboo and the artistic objects made from them.

Home Economics Department staff teachers prof. Mrs.Thakre Madam, prof.Avinashe Madam prof. Charhate Madam,prof. Haware Madam ,prof. Sagane Madam prof. Nathe Madam, prof. Gulwade Madam Prof. Nimbhorkar madam was present.

The subject of rural handicrafts works to empower the students in all respects by imparting to them the teaching that a woman is not limited to 'stove and child' but she can make her life enjoyable by standing on her own feet.

Prof. Sharda Nimbhorkar (Head of department)

Principal
B. S. Patil Mahavidyalaya
Achalpur Camp (Paratwada)

